

Updated Trader Joe's Pas Yisroel & Cholov Yisroel List: Cheshvan 5782/ October 2021

Compiled By Rabbi Nissan Zibell

Important To Note:

To understand this list and avoid possible mistakes, please read the below points carefully.

To confirm that you have our most updated list, please log onto www.kashrusbeintheknow.com

- Many Hashgachos on the list below are relying on a glow bar heating element or a pilot to make their products Pas Yisroel. One should check with their Rav if their standard is to accept this way of making products Pas Yisroel. Sometimes a hechsher will use different methods on different products under their hashgacha. For example, some products can be made with a glow-bar method, while other products can be made Pas Yisroel to the highest standards. One can reach out to a hashgacha directly to find out what method they use in making specific products Pas Yisroel.
- Anything that doesn't clearly say Pas Yisroel on a package should be double checked with the Hashgacha on a yearly basis (we recommend twice a year). At times, there may be products that are not on a Hashgacha's list as being Pas Yisroel, but are in fact Pas Yisroel. You can send us an email at kashrusbeintheknow@gmail.com, or check with Rabbanim in the kashrus field who would know of such products and if anything has changed in their status. One should also stay informed by following kashrus agencies and kashrus alerts for any changes that may happen.
- READ THE PACKAGING CAREFULLY! Some products may look exactly the same as others - and may even be the same product - however, if it is under a different hechsher that is mentioned on the list below, then the Pas Yisroel status will change too. One should be careful that not just the product name matches the list, but that it also matches the hechsher that is on the list below. See here JUST A FEW examples of possible mistakes one can make.

- If you know of any other products at Trader Joe's that are Pas Yisroel, please reach out to us on our email above and help us improve our list!

Caution: The following products are confirmed to be Pas Yisroel ONLY after one has read through Page 1 of this list carefully. Mistakes have been made in the past by solely relying on the listed items and pictures.
